Terms of use in Dominican Republic

Last updated: November 16, 2026.

Who provides the service

Email us at soporte@globalagenttic.com. You can send us questions and complaints free of charge from Help and contact: we give you a tracking number and reply within 10 business days at most.

What Selezziona is

Selezziona is a job search and recruitment platform. On selezziona.com, people search for job openings and companies learn about the platform. Each company posts its job openings on its own job portal, inside Selezziona.

Acceptance

These terms apply to anyone who uses selezziona.com in Dominican Republic. You can read, download and print them before you accept them. When you create an account or sign up for a plan, you accept them by checking the box. We store the version, the date and the time, and we email you a confirmation with a link to the version you accepted. How we handle personal data is explained in the Privacy notice.

Your account

Each account belongs to one person only. Keep your email secure, because you use it to sign in to your account. If you are an Administrator of a company, you are responsible for the people you invite to the panel and for what they do there. If someone gets into your account without permission, let us know from Help and contact.

If you are looking for a job

- Creating your account, applying and using the tools for candidates are free.
- You must be 18 or older to create an account. If we learn that an account belongs to a minor, we delete it.
- No company may charge you to apply or to hire you. If one does, report the job opening.
- What you write in your profile and your resume must be true. The company you apply to uses that information to evaluate you.
- When you tap Apply, you go to the company’s portal. The company decides whom it interviews and whom it hires.

If you post job openings

- You post job openings for real jobs, with accurate information about the position, the location and the conditions.
- You may not ask people who apply for money or post pyramid, multilevel or similar schemes. Those job openings are rejected and the account may be suspended.
- A job opening may not require or prefer people based on their age, sex, marital status, pregnancy, religion, origin, disability or appearance, unless a law requires it for that position.
- Resume reading and requirement evaluation are an aid and can make mistakes. Review the result before you decide. A person at your company makes the decisions to interview, reject or hire.

- The “Verified company” badge means that a person on our team reviewed the company’s documents. It does not guarantee the company’s job openings or its working conditions.
- Your company is responsible for making sure its job openings and selection processes comply with the laws of its country.

What is not allowed

You may not copy job openings or profiles with automated programs, sell or pass candidates’ data to others, use that data for anything other than your selection processes, create accounts with false information, impersonate another person or company, or access parts of the system that are not yours.

What you publish

What you publish remains yours: your company’s job openings, logo and texts, and the profile and resumes of job seekers. You give us permission, at no cost and for as long as it is published, to show it on your portal, on selezziona.com, in email alerts and in search engines such as Google. A profile is seen only by the companies that the Privacy notice allows. The permission ends when you delete the content or close the account. You may not copy or resell the Selezziona brand, the site or the software.

Plans, payments and cancellation

- Prices are on the Pricing page, in US dollars. We invoice from Panama. For companies in Panama we add the 7% ITBMS (Panama’s sales tax); in other countries we do not add taxes. Your bank may charge its own fees.
- The Free plan has no cost and does not expire. The free trial lasts 14 days and does not require a card. If you do not sign up for a plan when the trial ends, the account moves to Free at no charge: open job openings are closed and you have only what that plan includes.
- To sign up for a plan, write to us from Help and contact. You pay by credit or debit card; we do not accept bank transfers. You can pay monthly or for the full year, which costs the same as 10 months.
- You can cancel at any time: email us at soporte@globalagenttic.com. The plan continues until the end of the paid period, and then the account moves to Free with its data. We do not refund what you paid for that period.
- The Custom domain (for example, jobs.yourcompany.com) is a monthly add-on separate from the plan.

Candidate data

Your company is responsible for the data of the people who apply on its portal and uses it only for its selection processes. Selezziona processes that data on behalf of your company, under the Data processing agreement, which you can read and download before you sign up. The full terms for companies are in the Terms of service for companies.

Reports and review

We review each job opening with fixed rules, without artificial intelligence, when you create, edit or activate it. We do not publish job openings that ask people who apply for money, or pyramid or multilevel schemes. Others stay on hold until a person on our team reviews them, for example if they ask people to write on WhatsApp or if the salary is very high for the position. In your panel you can see which rule put the job opening on hold.

Anyone can report a job opening. After two reports from different people, the job opening is paused while we review it. We let you know and tell you why. We close a job opening or suspend an account only if we confirm that it does not follow these rules. If you disagree with a decision, reply to us from Help and contact and we will review it again.

Closing or suspending an account

You can close your account at any time: if you are looking for a job, from Privacidad y datos (Privacy and data) in your account; if you are a company, by emailing us at soporte@globalagenttic.com. If we suspend an account, we tell you why and you can respond. If we suspended it because of our own error, we refund the unused part of the paid period.

What we do not guarantee

Selezziona is not a party to the employment relationship between the company and the person it hires. We do not guarantee that an application will lead to a job or that a job opening will stay open. We do not review everything that companies and people publish, and we are not responsible for that content or for what they do outside the platform. The service may stop for maintenance; when we know in advance, we let you know beforehand. This does not limit our liability for failures of the service you signed up for, or the rights that the law of your country gives you and that cannot be waived.

Emails

We send you service emails, such as sign-in codes and notices about your applications or your plan. We send you advertising only if you agree to it, with the word “publicidad” (advertising) in the subject line and a link to stop receiving it.

Changes to these terms

If we change these terms, we publish the new version with its date and email you at least 30 days before it takes effect. Changes do not raise the price of a period you have already paid for. If you disagree, you can cancel before that date without paying anything more. For any questions, email us at soporte@globalagenttic.com.

Governing law

These terms are governed by the laws of Panama. If you are a consumer in Dominican Republic, you keep the rights its laws give you, and you can go to the Instituto Nacional de Protección de los Derechos del Consumidor (Pro Consumidor), the Dominican consumer protection agency, or to its courts.

Language

This is an English translation of the Spanish text. If the two versions differ, the Spanish version applies. You can read the Spanish version.
